Red River Rivalry comes to the Gardens

Galveston, Texas- Gulfcoast college football fans need not head north this year to take in one of the season's biggest games! Moody Gardens Hotel is bringing the Red River Rivalry matchup between the Texas Longhorns and Oklahoma Sooners to Galveston with the Island's hottest game-day party Saturday Oct. 2.

The game-day party will be held in the Garden Cay Activity Room adjacent to the hotel lobby. With large flat screen televisions, billiard tables and plush accommodations, the Garden Cay is the coolest place on the Island to take in one of the hottest games of the year. From 2pm to 7pm, party goers will enjoy a Complimentary Buffet featuring chicken wings, mini hot dogs, hamburger sliders, chips and dip, and more, as well as a Happy Hour featuring $2 Draft Beer and $3 Well Drinks.

Longhorn and Sooner fans bring your competitive spirit and don your team's colors and help transform the Garden Cay into a mini-version of the Cotton Bowl – half burnt orange and half crimson!
